Let your trouble go come what may
Sing with me and let your body sway

Won't you sing it with me
Sing lo lo with me
Let your spirit high and sing lo lo

It's not so hard to feel good, that I know
Just show your love and let it flow
Have a good time, that's what I say
Let the music bring a brighter day

Sing lo lo under the bright rainbow
Feel the rhythm let your body go
Turn your body loose and dance lo lo

Valala iray aza hono hifanapahana
'zay iray vatsy iray aina
Izaho ho tokinao, ianao ho tokiko

English

If a crowd crosses a river, crocodiles won't eat them.
Wolves won't eat a flock of guinea fowl.
Those who don't want to stick together become sand
Those who want to unite become as solid as a rock

One tree is not a forest,
One finger cannot catch a flea.
Burden shared is easy to carry
And unity is power

One man cannot build a house,
One person is not a public.
Even dead people want to have a crowd in the tomb
Many people become a weapon

If you share a fire, you have the same discussion.
Even one cricket is shared
Those who have the same amount of food to eat have the same amount of life in them
I rely on you and you rely on me.
